

Week of March 28, 2021

RECENT HIGHLIGHTS:

- The first and second grade class sang a song about the presidents of the United States after chapel.
- The kindergarteners are learning how to play tee ball.
- The third and fourth graders are creating original gardens as dioramas.
- Miss L. Laubenstein's students are working on writing their own chapter of Five Children and It.
- All the students in kindergarten through seventh grade have been taking their annual standardized tests this week. There is a silver lining, though: the homework load is much lighter!

FROM MRS. MAY:

Academy and Cherub Choirs will NOT be required to wear uniforms for Palm Sunday, March 28, but should wear nice Sunday clothes.

The Academy Choir will be singing on Good Friday at the 1:00 pm service. Students should be uniformed, in their seats, and ready to sing by 12:15 pm. Please be on time as we want to clear the church for silent prayer as quickly as possible. Parents, if you will be attending the 1:00 Good Friday service, please sign up in advance.

Children's choirs do not sing for Easter, but families are strongly encouraged to sign up for Easter services. There are several services scheduled during Holy Week. If you are planning to attend any of them, we ask you please sign up in advance.

Parents, you might notice colored dots on some of the books your children check out. The blue-colored dots indicate that the book is more appropriate for students 10 years and older. The yellow-colored dots indicate that the book contains information that we, as Christians, do not believe to be fact.

RECESS ATTIRE

After discussion among the faculty, we have decided to remove the official policy regarding outdoor attire. Rather than policing hats, gloves, jackets, and boots, we are putting those decisions back into the hands of parents. Every effort will be made to send your child outside for recess in the coats and accessories in which you sent them to us.

We do ask that you continue to send boots if your child wishes to play on the grass. In order to protect your child's shoes as well as the floors and rugs inside the Academy, we will not allow students onto the grass without boots until the ground has sufficiently dried. Students may play on the blacktop without boots.

UNIFORM POLICY

As we near the end of the academic year it is easy for all of us to become complacent about the daily uniforms. As a reminder, all students are required to wear socks or tights with their uniforms, and shirts must have all the buttons attached, including collar buttons.
