RECENT HIGHLIGHTS:

- The kindergarteners are hearing about the settlement of the Jamestown Colony. They seem to agree with Captain John Smith that if a man won't work, he shouldn't eat.
- The first graders are learning about the circulatory system. We observed that our hearts beat faster when we exercise.
- Each of the third and fourth grade students designed and built an egg carrier to protect a raw egg in a drop of over six feet.
- The sixth and seventh grade students are enjoying learning about the importance of discipline in Mr. Midshipman Easy.

PARENT/TEACHER CONFERENCES:

The third quarter ends on March 18, and there will be parent/teacher conferences on Mon. and Tue., March 28 and 29. We will continue using Signup Genius to schedule the conferences. All earlier conferences will be on Monday and later conferences on Tuesday. You should have received an email inviting you to sign up. If you did not, please let Laura Ferguson know. She will make sure you receive all the relative information. If conflicts make it difficult to schedule conferences within the organized time frame, please speak to your child's teachers, and they will be more than willing to schedule your conferences at a more convenient time. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact Laura Ferguson.

CHOIR NOTES:

The students enjoyed fresh papaya with their lunch on Monday. For the most part, they gave it a thumbs up! Now they know what they are singing about.

I am looking for a little help to "dress up" our spring concert when we will be singing songs from around the world. I am not looking to have everyone dress up in costume but just a few individuals who might be interested if they have appropriate garb on hand or would like to assemble some special looks to complement our concert theme. Please let me know if you have any of these items or would like to help create some fun. Here are some ideas.

- Cherub: Duck costume
- Cherub: Baker costume with hat
- Academy: Korean (eastern) garb
- Cherub size: Mouse costume
- Props: Top hat, large stuffed cat, cow, dog, plastic pie
- Fruit topped hat (think Carmen Miranda!)
- Any size: Jamaican style outfit

THE TOURNAMENT IS CONTINUES!

The Tournament of letters commenced on Tuesday, March 1! Encourage your child to read for pleasure a little bit every day and record that time. At the end of the month, turn in your logs for prizes and recognition! Complete information and additional logs are available on the Quick-Schools Parent Portal.

ART NOTES:

What's Going on in Art?

- Kindergarteners are exploring the use of everyday objects to create monoprints. (Monoprinting is an artsy word for stamping.) Have you seen the skyscrapers they created? They're hanging next to the kindergarten classroom.
- First graders are doing outstanding work drawing repeating patterns in the Kente cloth they wove with paper strips. The work goes slowly because it requires a lot of concentration. I am so pleased with their perseverance!
- Third and fourth graders completed their multi-media winter pictures. They will be displayed in the hall outside their class very soon, so be sure to check them out.
- Fifth, sixth and seventh graders completed their amazing watercolor paintings of a winter landscape. They learned so much from this project that they are writing artist's statements about their work. These statements will hang adjacent to their paintings in the upper grade hall.

OFF TO THE THEATER

Allison Hermanson, a seventh grader, will be performing in the cast of The Crying Princess and the Golden Goose for one more performance: Wednesday, March 16 at 7:00 pm. Admission is free and the performance will be at Longfellow Middle School's Lois Weber Theater, 7600 West North Avenue.

If you are able, please support Ally by attending one of these performances.

GOING, GOING...TO THE AUCTION:

Tickets are now available to purchase for the Goods & Services Auction in support of Peace Lutheran Academy, which will be held on March 19! Tickets include dinner, 2 drinks, and an auction paddle. Prices are $35 per person or $240 for a table of 8 ($30/person) and can be purchased at www.plaauction.com

Invite coworkers, your boss, your neighbors, your relatives, your favorite mechanic, or merchant in the community. This is a very fun evening, and everyone will have a great time! Buying a table and inviting some of the folks in your life that have been such a blessing to you is a good way to say thanks to them and to celebrate and support the gift of the Academy. Buy Tickets Today to attend the PLA Auction!

The Annual Goods and Services Auction will be held at Lake Country Lutheran High School, 401 Campus Dr, Hartland, WI.

CHAMBER ORCHESTRA CONCERT:

The Concordia Chicago chamber orchestra is on tour this month and will be performing at Peace Lutheran Church on Friday, March 25. The orchestra will be performing in the sanctuary at 7:30 pm. It's a wonderful (and handy) opportunity to hear music performed live.

FIELD TRIP CANCELLATION:

We are sad to report that the April 1 field trip to the Milwaukee Public Museum has been cancelled due to covid restrictions. Thank you to all the parents who were willing to drive.

A Call for Patrons of Lutheran Schools

This is why we ask you to be a patron of a faithful Lutheran school. What is a patron? A patron is a defender and protector of the next Lutheran generation. A patron is an advocate for the Lutheran school. A patron strives to be a pattern of Christian faith and good works for the school community. A patron prays for the school and encourages its leadership, teachers, and parents. A patron gives money generously and regularly to the school to support its financial needs. It is this vision for the future of confessional Lutheranism that moves us to serve as Lutheran school patrons.

And what kind of school should you support? Look for and demand an education that enables, informs, and inspires these goals: Lutheran doctrine and practice in our churches. Lutheran worship and hymns in household, church, and school. Marriage and children as the pinnacle of Christian vocation. Vigorously Christian households rooted in God's Word.
