TODAY'S THEME: LORD, THEE I LOVE WITH ALL MY HEART

The parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus raises these questions: "Who is your god? What do you worship? Is God's judgment at death final? How does God warn me of the judgment of hell? What brings me to repentance?" The beggar was carried by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man suffered in hell, gazing at Abraham and the beggar from afar. Each received what he believed in: the rich man received the comforts of this life and of his own achievements, which did not last, and the beggar received the comfort of God's salvation through the faith of Abraham, which endures to eternal life. The judgment of death is final: "There is a great gulf fixed" between heaven and hell. Those in one place cannot pass to the other. Repentance to faith in Christ comes only through hearing the message of Moses and the prophets, who actually proclaim salvation for sinners through the death of the resurrected One—Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Guests—Welcome to our Divine Service! We are pleased that you are with us. If we can assist you in any way with questions about our confession of faith, spiritual struggles, understanding our liturgical service, or any other need, please let us know. It is our prayer that the Gospel of Jesus Christ will strengthen and comfort you. Before you leave this morning, please sign our guest register in the narthex.

Pastoral Care and Guests at the Lord's Supper We are concerned about the spiritual welfare of all who commune at the Lord's Table. If you are a guest and desire to commune, please speak to the pastor before the service. Our altar is open to those who confess oneness with us in doctrine, are members of our congregation or sister congregations of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and are not under church discipline in another congregation. In Christ, Pastor Bender

There will be Bible Class on June 28 and throughout most of the month of July).

CCA Symposium this summer will explore “The Gift of Creation and Her Redemption in Christ.” Dates are June 20-22. Rev. Dr. Thomas Aadland from Kenya and Rev. Steven Schumacher from Ghana will be two of our guest presenters, along with Rev. Dr. Burnell F. Eckardt, Jr., and Rev. Dr. D. Richard Stuckwisch. The symposium will explore the all-important connections between creation and our redemption in Christ in a world that denies both. Registration forms for members are available at the Scrip counter.
