Central Thoughts

- Jesus is revealed as the Christ, the King and Savior of all the nations.
- All the events surrounding and involving Jesus' birth fulfill the Old Testament Scriptures and proclaim Him to be the Christ, who will suffer and die for the sins of the world.
- Those who reject Christ are often filled with bitterness, resentment, and hatred toward Him because they cannot be their own king and savior.
- True worship is faith and trust in Jesus for salvation.

Frankincense is the incense used by the priests in their daily sacrifices and prayers for forgiveness. Myrrh is the fragrant oil used to anoint the priests and kings. It would also be used to anoint Jesus' body for burial. Jesus is prophet, priest, and king. He is anointed to die for the sins of the world and by the sweet-smelling aroma of His sacrifice, will continually intercede for us as our great High Priest and also reign forever and ever as King of kings and Lord of lords.*

The prophecy from Jeremiah: "A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted, because they are no more". (Jeremiah 31:15)

The death of Jesus, God's only Son

Jacob's wife, the mother of Joseph and Benjamin, she represents all the mothers of Israel who lost children

When did the angel of the Lord appear to Joseph in Egypt?

That the Scriptures might be fulfilled: "He shall be called a Nazarene" like the Old Testament Judge Samson, who was a "Nazarite"—one dedicated to the Lord from the womb to deliver God's people (Judges 13:5)

Why is it important that the events of the Epiphany, the Slaughter of the Holy Innocents, and the Flight into Egypt, all took place according to the Scriptures?

Meditation on the Bible Story

The star appeared in the East, according to the Old Testament prophecy, proclaiming the birth of the Messiah and announcing Him to be the Savior of all the nations of the earth. The light of the star signifies the light of Christ that goes out into all the world through the preaching of the Gospel to draw all nations to Jesus, so that people of every tribe and language might worship Him. Worship is faith that desires to receive Christ and that trusts in Him for salvation. The wise men offered their gifts to Jesus as a confession of their faith in Him and to proclaim the purpose of His coming. He was born to be our prophet, priest, and king. He will faithfully preach the Gospel as the Father's prophet. He will faithfully offer His own body into death for the world's salvation as our great High Priest. And He will faithfully conquer sin, Satan, and death by His own death and thereby reign forever and ever as King of kings and Lord of lords. All the events surrounding the birth, ministry, death, and resurrection of our Lord Jesus unfold according to the Scriptures that we might be saved from our sins. Wherever the Gospel of Jesus is proclaimed there will be those who receive it and those who reject it. King Herod and his wicked slaughter of the Holy Innocents signifies the bitter hatred of the Gospel that often flows out of the hearts of impenitent sinners who will not repent of their sin and let go of their own works for salvation. Herod's violence and murder directed at the Lord's Christ is a sign that the Gospel is true and ultimately predicts Jesus' own suffering and death at the hands of sinners for the salvation of sinners.

Prayer on the Bible Story

O God, by the leading of a star You made known Your only-begotten Son to the Gentiles. Lead us, who know You by faith, to enjoy in heaven the fullness of Your divine presence; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
