Meditation on the Bible Story

To be a beggar, one who is totally dependent upon another, is a great description of what it is to be a Christian. The Christian is totally dependent upon Christ, who died for our sins and who gives us the gift of eternal life and salvation. He is the promised Seed of Abraham, and through faith in Him we are declared righteous—justified and forgiven. Our own works, accomplishments, money, education, and position in life cannot save us. Only Christ can save because only He died upon the cross in payment for our sins. Both men were sinners. Neither one of them could have saved themselves. The difference between the two was the faith of the heart. The rich man trusted in his riches. The beggar Lazarus trusted in the Lord. We need God's Word. Only the testimony of the Scriptures from Moses and the prophets can bring about the miracle of repentance and faith in Christ. God's Word exposes our sins of idolatry and calls us to repentance. But where the Holy Spirit works faith, there is the promise of forgiveness and salvation with the Lord forever. We look forward to the day when we die and the angels carry our souls to heaven, Abraham's bosom, where we will forever be with the Lord and where He will wipe away all tears from our eyes.

Prayer on the Bible Story

Heavenly Father, by Your Word bring us to repentance for all the ways in which we trust in ourselves, our works, our money, or any of the pleasures of life. Give us firm faith in Jesus Christ our Savior, so that trusting in Him like the beggar Lazarus, we might have the gift and promise of everlasting life with You; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
