The Twenty-Sixth Sunday after Trinity

November 14, 2021

THEME: Come, Inherit the Kingdom Prepared for You!

Jesus gives us a picture of the last judgment. When He returns in glory with all His holy angels, He will sit upon the throne of His glory, all nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate believers in Christ (the sheep) from unbelievers (the goats). Believers in Christ will hear the result of Christ's forgiveness that they have believed: "Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world." Unbelievers, who have rejected Christ and despised His forgiveness, will hear: "Depart from Me, you cursed, into the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and all His angels." In the picture Jesus paints, both the sheep and the goats are shocked that Jesus draws attention to what they have or have not done. Since Christians do not trust in their works for salvation, they are shocked when Jesus refers to them in the judgment. Since unbelievers DO trust in their works, they are shocked to hear that they have done nothing deserving of salvation. Works do not save us, but they do testify to the faith of our heart. The works that are truly "good works" are those done entirely out of faith in God's mercy in Christ. These works are not produced by our own goodness or moral strength; rather, they are the fruits of God's good work of love and forgiveness that we have received. Since they are the fruits of faith—a faith that is entirely fixed upon Jesus—the believer may not even be aware of these works because his faith is fixed upon Christ for salvation. This explains their reply to Jesus in the judgment: "Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You drink?" From this we learn that our faith must be always fixed upon Jesus who first fed us, clothed us, and came to our aid in His work of salvation, only then will the works of faith be manifest in us.

Guests—Welcome to our Divine Service! We are pleased that you are with us. If we can assist you in any way with questions about our confession of faith, spiritual struggles, understanding our liturgical service, or any other need, please let us know. It is our prayer that the Gospel of Jesus Christ will strengthen and comfort you. Before you leave this morning, please sign our guest register in the narthex.

Pastoral Care and Guests at the Lord's Supper. We are concerned about the spiritual welfare of all who commune at the Lord's Table. If you are a guest and desire to commune, please speak to the pastor before the service. Our altar is open to those who confess oneness with us in doctrine, are members of our congregation or sister congregations of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and are not under church discipline in another congregation. In Christ, Pastor Bender

THIS WEEK'S SUNDAY SCHOOL AND FAMILY PRAYER AT HOME:

Jesus Teaches His Disciples to Pray—Luke 11:1-13

Parents are called to lead family prayer at home each week. Sunday School lessons cover the same material for the week and will reinforce family prayer at home. The next Family Prayer instructional meeting for parents and Sunday School teachers is Tuesday, December 7 at 6:30. Daily prayer with your family is a wonderful blessing, but for those for whom the habit has not been established, a goal of two to three times a week would be a great place to start.

Sunday Morning Bible Class Series:

The St. Peter Option—To Everyone an Answer

Sunday morning Bible Class will engage in a comprehensive study of 1 and 2 Peter, and how we are called to live joyfully and without fear as Christian pilgrims in a world of darkness and hostility toward the things we believe.

Coffee Break Bible Study Begins a Study of Matthew!

After a long road through Old Testament passages and the history of the Monarchy and divided kingdom of Israel, Coffee Break Bible Study has turned to the New Testament and has begun a verse-by-verse study of the Gospel according to St. Matthew. This would be a perfect time to join the Thursday morning Bible Study of fun, edifying, and enjoyable conversation.

NEWS AND NOTES

First Communion – We give thanks to God that Wyatt Thoni will be received at the Altar for his first communion today at the 10:30 Service. First Communion is received by those children who have learned by heart the Six Chief Parts of the Small Catechism, who desire the Sacrament in repentant faith, and who have been examined and absolved by the pastor. We give thanks to God for Wyatt's confession of faith and pray God's blessing upon his continued catechesis.

Memorial Maple Tree

In memory of Carl Duwe, husband of Del Duwe, a young Maple tree was planted just off of the patio in the front yard of the Church. We give thanks to God for faithful Christians, we remember the witnesses that have gone on before us, and we look forward to a blessed reunion with Christ in the resurrection on the last day.

Refrain

The Mighty One, | God the LORD,
speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to its | setting.
Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God | shines forth.

*Our God comes; he does not keep | silence;
before him is a devouring fire, around him a mighty | tempest.
He calls to the heavens above and to the earth, that he may judge his | people:*

"Gather to me my | faithful ones,
who made a covenant with me by | sacrifice!"
The heavens declare his righteousness, for God him- | self is judge!

*"Hear, O my people, and | I will speak;
O Israel, I will testify a- | gainst you.
I am | God, your God.*

Not for your sacrifices do I re- | buke you;
your burnt offerings are continually be- | fore me.
I will not accept a bull from your house or goats | from your folds.

Refrain

For every beast of the forest is mine, the cattle on a | thousand hills.
I know all the birds | of the hills,
and all that moves in the | field is mine.

*"If I were hungry, I would not | tell you,
for the world and its full- | ness are mine.
Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the | blood of goats?"*

Offer to God a sacrifice of thanks- | giving,
And perform your vows to the | Most High,
and call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you,
and you shall glo- | rify me."

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy | Spirit;
As it was in the be- | ginning,
is now, and will be forever. | Amen. Refrain
