The Seventh Sunday after Trinity

July 31, 2022

THEME: The Feeding of the 4,000

God gives us the gift of daily bread not only to provide for our own personal earthly needs, but also that we might be a steward of His earthly gifts in loving service to our neighbor. Covetousness is characteristic of the sinful nature of all of us. We crave the things of this world, not to spend them on another, but to use them in the service of self. This is why Jesus warns: "Take heed and beware of covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses." What does one's life consist of? One's life consists of knowing Christ by faith and in living in His love toward others. This means that the life of charity, compassion, and mercy is both a confession of our faith in God's mercy to us in Christ and also that which gives meaning to the lives we live toward others. The Rich Fool lived only for himself. He is the picture of the Old Adam who must be continually drowned and die through repentance and faith. To be "rich toward God" is to lay hold of Jesus alone for life and salvation. Through faith in Christ above all things, God transforms us into the very image of His Son that we might love as He loves.

Guests—Welcome to our Divine Service! We are pleased that you are with us. If we can assist you in any way with questions about our confession of faith, spiritual struggles, understanding our liturgical service, or any other need, please let us know. It is our prayer that the Gospel of Jesus Christ will strengthen and comfort you. Before you leave this morning, please sign our guest register in the narthex.

Pastoral Care and Guests at the Lord's Supper. We are concerned about the spiritual welfare of all who commune at the Lord's Table. If you are a guest and desire to commune, please speak to the pastor before the service. Our altar is open to those who confess oneness with us in doctrine, are members of our congregation or sister congregations of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and are not under church discipline in another congregation. In Christ, Pastor Bender

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND FAMILY PRAYER AT HOME

This week's lesson: The Feeding of the 4,000

The Family Prayer schedule of lessons continues through the summer for use in the home. Lessons will be posted on the website.

Real Reformation Radio... Issues, Etc. is a radio-talk show and podcast produced by Lutheran Public Radio in Collinsville, IL and hosted by LCMS Pastor Todd Wilken. This week's topics include: The Christian Heroes Who Stood Against Islam, Clinging to Christ in College, Apparent Contradictions on Paul's Conversion Story in Acts, Old Testament Patriarch Joseph and more. You can listen on-demand at issuesetc.org, the LPR mobile app and your favorite podcast provider.

“Hunger” and “thirst” reflect the yearning of the penitent soul for relief from sin and death, relief that only Christ can give...When Jesus refers to Himself as “the bread of life” He is proclaiming Himself the source of all life and salvation. He is the One who satisfies all our needs and the deepest longings of our hearts. There is no sin for which He is not the source of forgiveness. There is no condemnation for which He is not the source of all salvation. There is no death for which He is not the source of new life...Although these powerful and comforting words of Jesus can be applied broadly, it is specifically in the Holy Communion of Christ's true body and blood that we enjoy the greatest fulfillment of Jesus' words in this life...Since Christ's body and blood are given in the Lord's Supper, they make of every faithful communicant a partaker of Christ's divine life. In Christ there is no lack. All the blessings of the divine life are ours through the forgiveness of sins in Him. “These words, ‘Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins’ show us that in the Sacrament forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation are given us through these words. For where there is forgiveness of sins, there is also life and salvation.”
