

The Congregation at Prayer

*A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer
The Week of The Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany
February 1 through February 8, 2026*

Catechesis Notes for the Week — He Was Raised for Our Justification — “Christ was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification” (Romans 4:25). “When I look at my sins, they slay me. Therefore I must look upon Christ, who drew my sins upon Himself and has become a blessing. Now they lie no longer on my conscience but on Christ, and they seek to slay Him. Let us see, then, how they get on with Him. They cast Him down and kill Him. O, Lord God, where is now my Christ and my Redeemer? Then God comes and brings Christ forth and makes Him above, and not only alive, but He sets Him in heaven and lets Him rule over all things. Now where is sin? It is on the gibbet. And when I hold on to this and believe it I have a joyful conscience, like Christ, for I am without sin. Now I dare death, the devil, sin, and hell to do me harm. Inasmuch as I am a descendant of Adam they can harm me; I must shortly die. But now that Christ has laid upon Himself my sin, and has died for it, and been slain for it, they can do me no harm, for Christ is too strong for them. They cannot hold Him. He breaks forth and smites them to the ground, and ascends into heaven, binds and fetters sin and sorrow, and rules over them eternally. Therefore I have a good conscience, I am joyful and blessed, and fear those tyrants no longer, for Christ has taken my sin away from me and laid it on Himself. But they cannot remain on Him.” – Martin Luther

Catechism: Confession and the Office of the Keys

What is Confession?

Confession has two parts.
First, that we confess our sins,
and second, that we receive absolution,
that is, forgiveness, from the pastor as from God Himself,
not doubting,
but firmly believing that by it our sins are forgiven before God in heaven.

Kindergarten +

What sins should we confess?

Before God we should plead guilty of all sins,
even those we are not aware of, as we do in the Lord's Prayer;
but before the pastor we should confess only those sins which we know and feel in our hearts.

Second Grade +

Which are these?
 Consider your place in life according to the Ten Commandments:
 Are you a father, mother, son, daughter, husband wife, or worker?
 Have you been disobedient, unfaithful, or lazy?
 Have you been hot-tempered, rude, or quarrelsome?
 Have you hurt someone by your words or deeds?
 Have you stolen, been negligent, wasted anything, or done any harm?

Collect for the Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany

Almighty God, You know we live in the midst of so many dangers that in our frailty we cannot stand upright. Amen.

Collect for the Presentation of Our Lord

Hymn of the Week

“Lord, Help Us Ever to Retain”

Looking forward to the Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany

February 8, 2026

Hymns: 563, 578, 568, 575, 825, 865

Isaiah 58:3-9a: The true “fast” that pleases God is not the arbitrary decision to refrain from eating certain foods, but the kind of self-denial that considers others better than ourselves and that lives in mercy and compassion for other sinners. “Is this not the fast that I have chosen: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, to let the oppressed go free...to share your bread with the hungry...When you see the naked, that you cover him, and not hide yourself from your own flesh.”

1 Corinthians 2:1-16: The Apostle Paul reminds the Corinthian congregations that the heart of his ministry among them was that he determined not to know anything among them “except Jesus Christ and Him crucified.” This was not Paul’s personal program for how to be a minister. His words define what must always be at the heart of the Church’s work in every time and in every place. All of Christian doctrine and life is understood and flows from Christ’s atoning sacrifice for us upon the cross.

Matthew 5:13-20: Christians are called “the salt of the earth” and “the light of the world” because they have the Gospel of Christ’s forgiveness and believe in Him. The Gospel is like salt that preserves us from sin and death or like light that illumines the darkness of unbelief and banishes the falsehood of human self-righteousness. Christians must never let go of the Gospel. The Church must continue to preach and confess it in all its truth and purity. The Gospel is the power of God for salvation and the source of true wisdom and real truth. We are called to let the light of the Gospel shine forth in works of mercy and charity that reflect God’s undeserved love for sinners. Jesus did not come to overturn or destroy the demands of the Law, but to fulfill them by the sacrifice of Himself upon the cross. He did the Law and taught the Law in His death upon the cross. His suffering and death for sin is God’s righteousness. We receive it by faith in Him. It is the only righteousness that can save us and the only righteousness that can save the world.
