The Congregation at Prayer

A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer
For the Week of the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost
June 28 through July 5, 2026

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

The Order of Meditation and Prayer

The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins
Wednesday:	For marriage and family
Thursday:	For the Church and her pastors; and for fruitful and salutary use of the Lord's Supper
Friday:	For the preaching of the holy cross of our Lord Jesus Christ and for the persecuted and oppressed
Saturday:	For the renewal of those who are withering in the faith or have fallen away from Christ

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

For the Week of the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost
June 28 through July 5, 2026

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.*

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins
Wednesday:	For marriage and family
Thursday:	For the Church and her pastors; and for fruitful and salutary use of the Lord's Supper
Friday:	For the preaching of the holy cross of our Lord Jesus Christ and for the persecuted and oppressed

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

For the Week of the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost
June 28 through July 5, 2026

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.*

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins
Wednesday:	For marriage and family
Thursday:	For the Church and her pastors; and for fruitful and salutary use of the Lord's Supper
Friday:	For the preaching of the holy cross of our Lord Jesus Christ and for the persecuted and oppressed

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

For the Week of the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost
June 28 through July 5, 2026

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.*

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins

Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.*

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.*

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things *— Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.*

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things *— Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.*

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things *— Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.*

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things *— Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.*

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things *— Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.*

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things *— Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.*

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things *— Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.*

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things *— Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.*

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things *— Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.*

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things *— Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.*

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things *— Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Sunday:	For the joy of the resurrection among us
Monday:	For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work
Tuesday:	For deliverance against temptation and evil and those struggling with besetting sins

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.*

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things *— Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Catechism: Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition

What is the Seventh Petition? But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	Second Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, and In Our Prayers at Peace

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty God, by the working of Your Holy Spirit, grant that we may gladly hear Your Word proclaimed among us and follow its directing; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Collect for St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles

Merciful and eternal God, Your holy apostles Peter and Paul received grace and strength to lay down their lives for the sake of Your Son. Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit that we may confess Your truth and at all times be ready to lay down our lives for Him who laid down His life for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Daily Themes for Prayer — "Let us pray…"

Lord's Prayer and Morning or Evening Prayer from the Catechism

Hymn of the Week "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus" 685

Looking forward to the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 9) July 5, 2026

Hymns: 684, 699, 618, 570, 339

Zechariah 9:9-12: If you had been among those who were waiting in humble faith for the coming of the long-expected Messiah, and it had been announced to you, "HE HAS COME!" you would have rejoiced with exceedingly great joy! The Prophet Zechariah foretold the coming of Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusaelm! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey…He shall speak peace to the nations!" The announcement made through the prophet not only pertains to the historical events of Christ's birth and triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but it also pertains to us now! "Rejoice, greatly! Shout for joy! Your Savior comes to you now to forgive your sins, to comfort you in sorrow, and to give you a hope that cannot be shaken!" By His Word and Sacrament He rides into our midst to lift the burdens of troubled hearts.

Romans 7:14-25a: Paul's catechesis on the baptismal life continues with a discussion of the ongoing problem of sin's corruption that continues to adhere within the Christian. Although we confess correctly that our sins are forgiven and Christ has taken our sin away, nevertheless the problem of sin's corruption remains within the Christian. Paul calls this being "carnal" or "fleshly" – his use of the term "carnal" is a reference to the ongoing problem of sin that will not be removed from our bodies until the resurrection. We can relate to Paul's confession, "I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." This does not mean that we are to rejoice in being sinful, or that we are to indulge the appetites of our flesh. But rather, it means that the struggle with sin remains because we are joined to Christ who bore our sin in His body, so that we might learn through this struggle ever deeper reliance upon His grace.

Matthew 11:25-30: The sweetness and precious comfort of the Gospel is what Jesus is referring to when He prays, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes…" Let us be babes in Christ, receiving His good gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation! To know the Son is to know the Father and God's heart of love for the brokenhearted and those who are tormented by the struggle with sin. Therefore Jesus invites us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light!"

Catechesis Notes for the Week— To Love Christ Above All Things — Jesus' words are jarring: "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matthew 10:37-39). Is Jesus denying the obligations of the Fourth Commandment? No! Is He urging us to abandon our sons or daughters? No! Instead, Jesus is confessing that He alone is our God—our Creator and our Savior. If we let go of Christ, then we have nothing! Our lives and our salvation are entirely gifts of God through Christ. Apart from Him we do not exist, and apart from Him we cannot be saved. Jesus' catechesis distinguishes between the First Commandment and the Fourth Commandment. The Fourth Commandment is the first commandment under the Second Table of the Law and clearly sets up the authority of father and mother, and their obligation to care for their children and their children to honor them, as foundational for all human relationships. But the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods" is greater because Christ is the source of everything. The Gospel of God's love in Christ creates the faith that the First Commandment demands. And the miracle of faith is that he who loves Christ above all things loves father and mother, son and daughter in the best possible way.

The Order of Meditation and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

Theme: To Love Christ above All Things!

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Apostles' Creed

Verse: Matthew 10:38-39

He who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me.
He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it.

Psalm 119:153-160 and/or the appointed daily psalms listed below.

Prayer on Psalm 119: O Lord Jesus, apart from You and Your Word we have no life or salvation. Strengthen our faith in Your precious promises that we might call upon You every morning for all that we need to support us in this body and life; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
